NATIONAL MULTICULTURAL VIRTUAL CONFERENCE AND SUMMIT

January 5 - 7

SPONSOR and EXHIBITOR PROSPECTUS

Sponsorship Overview

What is the National Multicultural Conference and Summit?

The National Multicultural Conference and Summit (NMCS) convenes scholars in our roles as community members, educators, practitioners, researchers, and students in psychology and related fields to inform and inspire multicultural theory, research, practice, and advocacy.

We envision multiculturalism intersections of experiences related to age, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity and expression, indigenous heritage, national origin, race, spirituality, religion, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, and other social identities.

Every other year, the NMCS offers an opportunity for professional continuing education through keynotes, symposia, skill-building workshop sessions, roundtables, difficult dialogues, and poster presentations all focused on current topics in research and scholarship relevant to diverse populations.

NMCS Host Divisions

- Division 17: Society of Counseling Psychology
- Division 35: Society for the Psychology of Women
- Division 44: Society for the Psychology of Sexual Orientation and Gender Diversity
- Division 45: Society for the Psychological Study of Culture, Ethnicity and Race

Attendee Profile

NMCS attendees are counselors, clinicians, scientists, educators, students, and consultants who study, work, and specialize in issues concerning ethnic minorities, women, gender identity, LGBTQ issues, and more. In recent years, attendance has varied from more than 500 to 900 attendees.

Program Format

The 2022 Annual Meeting will be held virtually in consideration of the continued spread of COVID-19.

Why partner with the NMCS?

As the leading conference dedicated to the advancement of multicultural psychology, the 2022 National Multicultural Conference and Summit offers you exclusive access to professionals and students from a variety of professional and institutional settings. You will be supporting and participating in the largest gathering of multicultural scholars, practitioners, and professionals, which makes it the perfect venue to market your institution, organization, services, or products.

We offer a variety of sponsorship levels and options, all of which include opportunities to (depending on package level):

- Brand and advertise on various areas of the virtual site- put your company's name in front of decision makers in the psychology community.
- Gain one-on-one exposure to expanded/increased audience due to online format.
- Participate with an excellent ratio of attendees to vendors/supporters/suppliers.
- Ensure your company's recognition and visibility before and during the conference, with extended visibility after as virtual site will remain available after the live event concludes.
- Add to the value of the meeting and demonstrate your company's desire to support inclusion and diversity.
- Access data and analytics to provide a clear understanding of attendee engagement.
